James Johnson
jimmy@jnjohnson.io   linkedin.com/in/jamesnjohnsonjr

Web Developer

Dedicated and enthusiastic Web Developer with a passion for building beautiful, intuitive user interfaces. Currently employed by Floodlight Design, building custom Wordpress sites for clients in Chicagoland and throughout the country. Has excellent communication skills and is prepared to work individually or on a team.

Work Experience

Web Developer - Floodlight Design, Elgin, IL
July 2018 - Present
- Creating custom Wordpress themes using PHP, HTML, CSS and Javascript for client projects
- Writing developer notes during meetings with design firms
- Building responsive websites with HTML, CSS and Javascript that work across all platforms and browsers
- Integrating custom fields in Wordpress templates enabling clients to easily add and modify site content
- Developing custom interactive elements including sliders, maps, and menus using Javascript and CSS

Web Development Intern - LawnGuru, Ann Arbor, MI
May 2016 - Dec. 2016, May 2017 - Aug. 2017
- Front end web developer responsible for building the front end of Lawnguru.co website using HTML and CSS
- Translated user interface and user experience design wireframes into code
- Built a responsive, mobile-friendly site using CSS3
- Boosted SEO score of webpages

Education

2018 - Bachelor of Science in Communications Technology - Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti, MI
2017 - AAS in Web Design and Development - Washtenaw Community College, Ann Arbor, MI

Skills

Languages, Libraries, and Frameworks
AJAX, Bootstrap, CSS, Git, HTML, JavaScript, jQuery, JSON, Node, PHP, SASS, SQL, Wordpress

Soft Skills
Critical thinking, efficient, organized, self-motivated, strong work ethic, verbal and written communication